Subject: Announcement of Robin Barber as Seattle DC Director

I am pleased to announce that Robin Barber has accepted the Seattle Distribution Director position.

Robin started her Safeway career with Carr Gottstein 32 years ago in the Anchorage Distribution Center. Through her career Robin managed multiple divisions of Carr Gottstein, including their Food Service Distribution Center, Freight Division, Tacoma and Anchorage Distribution Centers. She has had many roles in her career from procurement to inventory management and has enjoyed the benefit of learning a variety of roles throughout the supply chain network.

Robin will be based at the Auburn Distribution Center and reports directly to me.

Robin and her husband, Jeff, enjoy outdoor activities, backpacking, hunting, fishing, and time with their family.

Please join me in congratulating Robin on her new position.
